Goods and Service Tax Certificate

Applicable to: Government Reserved Forests/Unclassed Forests, Private Plantations

Purpose and content: The purpose of the document is to prove the company's registration with the Indian Taxation system. The document consists of information like Legal Name, Trade Name, Address of Principle place of Business, Date of Liability, Period of Validity, Type of Registration, GST Number and the details of the Managing/Authorized Partners.

Holder of document: Business entities

Signature/stamp required by: Computer generated with QR code

Evidence limitations and weaknesses:

This document is merely a certificate of Registration which contains most of the relevant data necessary for a certificate and hence has no limitations.

Key considerations when checking the document:

- ☐ The GSTIN number mentioned in the document can be cross-checked in the Goods and Services weblink: <https://services.gst.gov.in/services/searchtp>
- ☐ If the GSTIN number exists and matches with the same Legal Entity mentioned in the certificate, then we could conclude that the certificate is valid.

Registration and License to Work a Factory

Applicable to: Government Reserved Forests/Unclassed Forests, Private Plantations

Purpose and content: As per the Factory Act 1948 it is mandatory for every factory owner to register their premises with the local authorities before commencing their business. Factory License acts as a document of approval given by authorities to carry out manufacturing activities. Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health issues Factory License. It is the duty of Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health to keep a check on the health, safety, and welfare of workers. Factories Act 1948 says that a factory must obtain its building plan approval from the labor and employment department before covering themselves for a factory registration. Under this act, registration and renewal of the Factory license are also done to ensure the safety of workers. The License has details like Registration Number, License Fees, Name of the Factory, Description of Licensed Premises.

Holder of document: Business entities

Signature/stamp required by: Computer generated with QR code

Evidence limitations and weaknesses:

While making an application for the license there may be bribes or corruption involved in the process. The document does not mention the deadline date for renewal.

Key considerations when checking the document:

- ☐ The validity and the status of the factory license can be checked in Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health website: <https://dish.tn.gov.in/verification.html>

Certificate of Import Export Code (IEC)

Applicable to: Government Reserved Forests/Unclassed Forests, Private Plantations

Purpose and content: An Importer-Exporter Code (IEC) is a business identification number that is mandatory for import to India or export from India. A person/entity cannot export or import without obtaining an IEC unless specifically exempted. The Director General of Foreign Trade issues the Import Export Code, and it is essentially a 10-digit code that is valid for the lifetime of the business.

Holder of document: Business entities

Signature/stamp required by: Foreign Trade Development Officer

Evidence limitations and weaknesses:

The document has to be renewed on a yearly basis and the deadline for renewal is not mentioned in the document. The GST Certificate may act as the IEC Code in future and the document may become irrelevant.

Key considerations when checking the document:

- ☐ The validity and the status of the factory license can be checked in Directorate of Industrial Safety and Health website: <https://dish.tn.gov.in/verification.html>

Employees Provident Fund Payment Receipt

Applicable to: Government Reserved Forests/Unclassed Forests, Private Plantations

Purpose and content: Employees Provident Fund (EPF) is a scheme in which benefits are accumulated. Under the scheme, an employee has to pay a certain contribution towards the scheme and an equal contribution is paid by the employer. EPF is the main scheme under the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Act, 1952. The employee and employer each contribute 12% of the employee's basic salary and dearness allowance towards EPF.

Holder of document: Business entities

Signature/stamp required by: Computer generated with QR code

Evidence limitations and weaknesses:

The document does not mention the next payment due date.

Phytosanitary Certificate

Applicable to: Government Reserved Forests/Unclassed Forests, Private Plantations

Purpose and content: This document aims to prevent the spread of plant pests and diseases through the transportation of plant/forest products.

Export inspection and phytosanitary certification of plants and plant products is carried out following article IV of International Plant Protection Convention (IPPC) to meet the legal obligations of the member countries. The Phytosanitary Certificates are issued in the model formats set out under article V of the IPPC in consistence with current PQ regulations of the importing country.

Such certificates are issued after careful inspection and treatment of plants and plant products by technically qualified and duly authorized officers at the country of export and shall include additional declarations as may be required by the importing country and also particulars of treatment, if any given by the duly authorized officer.

Accordingly inspecting & certifying authorities are notified by Ministry of Agriculture for undertaking export inspection and phytosanitary certification. The Phytosanitary issuing authority may refer Export-Import Policy as well as provisions of the CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of wild flora and fauna) for the detailed list of prohibited/ restricted plant species.

While entering trade negotiations (Letter of Credit (LC) / Agreement etc.), the exporter should ensure to reflect in the contract which they entered with the importer about the current Plant Quarantine Regulations in respect of the Commodity being exported from the importing country or a copy of the permit issued by the importing country wherever applicable. The phytosanitary certificate is issued as per the requirements of the importing country duly reflected in the contract or the permit issued by the importing country. The certificate contains information like Consignor, Consignee, Description of the Consignment (Place of Origin, Point of Entry & Botanical Names), Disinfection Treatment, Additional Declaration etc.

Holder of document: Business entities

Signature/stamp required by: Authorized officer

Evidence limitations and weaknesses:

The document cannot be verified through an online verification method.

Key considerations when checking the document:

- ☐ Is the date, species, quantity, quality on the document correspond to information on other sales documents?
- ☐ Is the starting location and destination of transportation in line with the supply chain map, and supporting supply chain documents?
